The apprehension of the pair followed an all-night search on the part of Mr. Dreifus and his friends, who left here about 10 o'clock in the evening, after learning that the young man and girl had been seen walking on the railroad track near Franconia, The pursuers drove over the county roads in a buggy in an effort to head the couple off. Officer Nicholson and Louis Dreifus, a relative of the young woman, left here early this morning on a freight train for a point lower down on the railroad.

The defordent at the hearing by Attorney Robley D. Brumback.

The apprehension of the pair followed by Brainard H. Warner, of Kensington, was held in the various school districts of the county to-day. The winners will meet in Rockville May 18, and compete for $20 in gold, also offered by Mr. Warner. Last year all the prizes were wen to girlly sit, so this year they are barred.

WASHINGTON PASTORS—XV.

Rev. Samuel H. Greene, rector of the Calvary Baptist Church, is one of Washington's most celebrated pastors. Dr. Greene was born in Enosburgh, Vt., and was graduated from Colgate University in 1873; receiving his degree of dector of divinity from Hamilton Theological Seminary in 1875. Leaving his first pastorate at Cazenovia, N. Y., to answer the call to Calvary Baptist, he commenced his work there December 1, 1879. Since Dr. Greene has been in charge there has been constant growth, temporally and spiritually. The congregation of 400 has grown until there are now over 1,700 communicants, besides 300 Sunday school citizens.

school children. The Sunday school was pronounced by the National Sunday School Association to be the best organization of its kind in the country.

Dr. Greene was president of Columbian University, now George Washington University, from 1884 to 1895, also during the year 1900. During his pastorate several church organizations have been started, and all are in flourising condition, the total assessment amounting to over $30,000 annually. One-half of this sum is devoted to charity. The following is a list of the trustees: D. A. Chambers, chairman; L. E. Payson, I. J. Meagley, S. W. Woodward, J. C. Dowell, W. W. Everett, G. H. Judd, Charles I. Corby, H. P. Sanders.
